

Dr. Venkatesh S. Amin
Dean – Institute of Management & Commerce
Director – Management Development Program (MDP)
Srinivas University

Dr. Venkatesh S. Amin is an eminent academician, corporate trainer, and thought leader in the fields of management, commerce, and organizational development. He currently serves as the Dean of the Institute of Management and Commerce and Director of the Management Development Program (MDP) at Srinivas University, where he plays a pivotal role in academic leadership, faculty development, curriculum innovation, and industry–academia integration.

Dr. Amin holds a Ph.D. in Marketing on the topic Critical Analysis of In-Store Customer Perception and Buying Behavior Toward Home Furniture in Multiproduct Furniture Outlets of Mangalore. His research is widely recognized, and he continues to contribute to emerging domains such as digital retailing, consumer psychology, and experiential marketing.

With extensive training and consulting experience, Dr. Amin has conducted high-impact corporate programs for Indian Oil Corporation (IOC) across multiple cities including Hyderabad, Bangalore, Bellary, Mumbai, and Vijayawada. His expertise extends globally, having travelled to several countries to deliver training programs and professional development workshops for diverse organizational teams.

He has also conducted specialized training sessions and guest lectures for reputed institutions and organizations such as AJ Hospital, AJ Institute of Management, Karnataka Bank, New Mangalore Port Trust, Automark, MCC Bank, Vishwakarma cooperative bank Ltd, Atmashakthi Bank Ltd, Bhart Cooperative Bank Ltd Mumbai, V.K Furniture- Mangalore, Maroor Group, Moto Mark, Ramnath Traders And a few small scale manufacturing companies in Baikampady industrial area, Like J.V.Springs and among others. His programs are known for being highly engaging, practical, and transformative.

A passionate educator deeply committed to student development, innovation, and entrepreneurship, Dr. Amin has been instrumental in shaping young minds and preparing future-ready graduates. He is widely respected for his ability to simplify complex management concepts, connect theory with real-world applications, and inspire learners and professionals alike.

Beyond academics and corporate training, Dr. Amin is known for his strong commitment to community service—having voluntarily donated blood 30 times, reflecting his dedication to humanitarian causes. He is also a passionate lifelong learner, maintaining a personal library of over 500 books, symbolizing his intellectual curiosity and continuous pursuit of knowledge. A dynamic speaker with an engaging presentation style, Dr. Amin seamlessly blends academic rigor, real-world insights, inspiring stories, and practical strategies. His sessions are known to motivate, energize, and empower diverse audiences—students, faculty, corporate employees, and leaders.

With a rare combination of academic excellence, global exposure, social responsibility, and a deep passion for learning, Dr. Venkatesh S. Amin stands out as an exceptional keynote speaker for any prestigious events with his rich corporate exposure, academic depth, and dynamic presentation style, Dr. Venkatesh S. Amin is a highly sought-after keynote speaker for conferences, MDPs, faculty development programs, and industry forums.